Commitment of the Neapolis University Pafos for Endorsement of The European Charter for Researchers and
The Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

Neapolis University Pafos welcomes and endorses the European Commission's initiative to develop a European Researcher's Charter and a code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers that will contribute to the development of a sustainable, attractive European labour market for researchers, stimulating knowledge capacity and productivity growth.

Neapolis University Pafos is a new institution that aspires to become a centre of excellence in its chosen areas of expertise through fostering a research culture that rewards innovation and facilitates researchers to attain their potential.

Neapolis University Pafos is committed to the procedures and code of conduct, as set out in the European Researcher's Charter, governing the recruitment, working environment and conditions of research personnel. Neapolis University Pafos upholds the principles of ethics, research freedom and professional responsibilities of its researchers.

Prof. Elias Dinenis
Rector of Neapolis University Pafos
